The passion of Jesus Christ, other than being a bloody way of the cross, was actually the triumphant march of Jesus to His resurrection and glorification to bring about the redemption of sinful humankind. Peter clearly proclaims that it was impossible for death to hold Jesus in its power. The same message is explained in the Gospel by none other than Jesus Himself to the two dejected and discouraged disciples on their way to Emmaus. All that is necessary is to remember that we sinners have been redeemed with a price, not with gold or silver, but with the precious blood of the Son of God.
