Thoughts for Prayer SHALOM

Our life is to follow Jesus’ footsteps and teachings.

In today’s commercially dominated world, success is measured by how much wealth one has accumulated, by how much profit a company has earned for the shareholders. In the Gospel Jesus reminds us that we should work hard, but the effort is not for the goodness of oneself, but for the sake of earning his salvation and the building of the Kingdom of God. He says, “what profit would there be for one to gain the whole world and forfeit his life?” (Mt 16:26)

What God tells Jeremiah and Jesus tells his disciples, is not readily understandable to sound human mind. Jeremiah is asked to shout: ‘violence, devastation’ and on account of it, he is persecuted and made a laughingstock. Jesus speaks about renouncing oneself, taking up one’s cross, and losing one’s life in order to gain it. These are all opposed to what the world tells and promises us; what we, as Christians are asked to think and live, is the way to be a Christian.
