Thoughts for Prayer SHALOM

“Truly I tell you, whatever you did for one of the least of my brothers and sisters you did for me.” Who are the least among us? With the modern fast-paced life, we have little time to think about the least of our society. However, Jesus tells us that we will be judged for not spending time and resources for this category of people. This least in our society is the people under his dominion, much like a shepherd, who cares for his sheep. The paradigm of the shepherd, however, is rightly to be understood as a perfect paradigm of a caring shepherd, whom all would do well to follow. We should know that all would also be judged in accordance with his words and life-example.

Grant us Lord, we pray, always to remember Your abundant graces.
