Thoughts for Prayer SHALOM

Jesus, Our Lord and Saviour is the Good Shepherd of our souls.

He calls some people – the Pope, bishops and priests – in order that they may follow in His footsteps more deeply as the shepherds of His flock. There are three important duties of every one who is called to be a good shepherd.

“I am the Good Shepherd, and I know mind and mine know me.” Nothing is hidden from Jesus. He knows everyone of us by name. We know Jesus when we believe in Him and His presence in our lives with someone who loves them.

“I have other sheep that do not belong to this fold. These also I must lead, and they will hear my voice, and there will be one flock, one shepherd.” Jesus offered His life for everyone and He wants the Church to be united in truth and love. Shepherds of the Church should work tirelessly to build unity among those who believe in Jesus as the only Lord and Saviour.

Lord, strengthen the shepherds of Your Church and call many young people to share in Your ministry here on earth.

The sufferings and death of Jesus are interpreted in a new light by today’s Gospel, in which Jesus compares himself with the Good Shepherd, who lays down the life for the sheep. In particular, he mentions the voluntary nature of his sacrifice. It is out of love for the sheep that the Good Shepherd lays down his life. Christ here is telling us that his death is part of God’s plan to demonstrate his great love for humanity. Through his death, the sheep are given an opportunity to escape from the wolf that would destroy them. Further, the “sheep” are the human race and Christ has many other sheep that need to be brought into the same flock. These could be understood in different ways – as people of various regions, communities, and even religions – the true sheep will hear his voice, and, responding to his call, they will take their place with his flock.

The film traces the Life of Mary in her many roles; as mother of Jesus, wife of Joseph and symbol of purity and inspiration to all she meets. The Life of Mary is beautifully told with nothing left out from the Gospels; the Annunciation, the Visitation and all she meets. The Life of Mary is beautifully told with nothing left out from the Gospels; the Annunciation, the Visitation and the Magnificat.
