Thoughts for Prayer SHALOM

Christian Family is a gift of God with a man, a woman and their children forming. Its meaning, purpose and mission come from being formed in the image of the Holy Trinity.

The mutual love between spouses faces the temptation of becoming self consuming by turning inwards. One love and three persons constitute the inner life of the Trinity. The Holy Spirit is the shared holiness and mutual love of the Father and Son. The SPIRIT OF “openness to a child” and the love between three equals in dynamic, interactive, serving and other-oriented interpersonal love is what forms a Christian family. The love of a male and female committed in its openness to new life (other centred) generates a Christian family.

The broader Trinitarian mission of God towards creation (Deut 4:32) is reflected in the missionary vocation of the family in the world. This love spreads out towards others, when we are sent to share its fruit with them (Rom 8:14, 16). A family with a sense of mission (Mt 28:19) does not retreat into their small family, but eventually embraces the world in order to nurture it with God’s love.

Triune God, strengthen our families by the power of Your love forming them in Your own image and likeness.

There is one Name and there is only one God despite the fact that he exists eternally in three persons. The mystery of the Trinity is nothing but the mystery of love as the source of all reality; the love that exists eternally between the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. It was manifested when God created the world and guided its history as mentioned in the First Reading, and invited human beings to a personal relationship to him as children of a loving Father as mentioned in the Second Reading. This profound mystery, does not remain an abstract something “out there” but enters into our very being and existence, through the Holy Spirit of God, which draws us into the inner life of the Trinity. Our Baptism, in which we were sealed with God’s name, creates an entirely new identity within us and draws us into the Kingdom of God’s eternal life.
