believe and are convinced that you are the Holy One of God. (John 6:68-69)

Master, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life. We have come to before Christ came to him and his joy on meeting his Lord and his God. Hopefully, like and professes renewed faith in Jesus

Thoughts for Prayer SHALOM

Today’s readings are very optimistic. They reflect the confidence and drive of a new enterprise. The confidence, properly understood, was fully justified. Things indeed looked good, for his love has no end.

Once again, the Gospel today has two scenes. The first is called the Pentecost of John; on the evening of Easter, the risen Christ is with the disciples and the symbolic gesture of ‘blowing’ opens the door to a new life, and he urges his disciples to form a humanity free from sin and grounded in the Spirit. The second scene refers to the response of the Risen Lord to doubting Thomas, who acknowledges and professes renewed faith in Jesus as his Lord and his God. Hopefully, like Thomas, we can go beyond the fragility of the doubt.
